

Guy Paterson

Director & Writer

Guy's graduation film, Flood, won the Royal Television Society Student Award for best drama. He was offered representation to direct TV commercials shortly after and has directed for clients including Coca-Cola, Nike, MTV, Sony etc. His work has been broadcast worldwide and in cinemas nationwide and has been nominated at the Cannes Lions and One Show Awards in New York.

During this time Guy continued to work on drama and as a winner of the 48hr Film Challenge he was picked by the British Council to attend the Berlinale Talent Campus. Guy's most recent short film, A Performance, played in festivals worldwide including Aesthetica Film Festival in the UK. Guy is currently developing his first feature, a psychological drama.