

Lee Coan

Writer

Lee Coan moved from print journalism into television in 2018, writing on the Sky drama Delicious, and the UKTV comedy Porters. He has twice won BBC Writersroom and in 2020 his family drama When I'm Not Around was voted onto the prestigious Brit List, as one of the best unproduced scripts in the UK. He currently is developing original projects over multiple genres, including an adaptation of the Kid Normal super-hero novels for Tiger Aspect and CBBC. He has other commissions with BBC, BritBox and ITV.
