Tim Whitnall

Writer

Tim is an English playwright, screenwriter and former actor. His stage play 'Morecambe' – a tribute to the late comedian Eric Morecambe – won a Fringe First Award for 'innovation and excellence in new writing' at the 2009 Edinburgh Fringe Festival. The show opened at London's Duchess Theatre in December 2009 and toured the UK through 2010. The play was nominated in two separate categories in the 2010 Olivier Awards and won the Best Entertainment category. In 2012 BBC Four screened Tim's 90 minute drama 'Best Possible Taste: The Kenny Everett Story' which won the BAFTA Breakthrough Talent Award 2013.
